

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare, isolated, diffuse palmoplantar keratoderma disorder characterized by diffuse, homogeneous, mild to thick, yellowish palmoplantar hyperkeratosis (sometimes spreading over the dorsal aspect of fingers), which presents a white spongy appearance following exposure to water, frequently associated with dermatophyte infections. Hyperhydrosis is usually present and skin biopsy shows non-epidermolytic changes.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

Autosomal dominant diffuse palmoplantar keratoderma, Norrbotten type

NEPPK

Rozlany rogowiec dłoniowo-podeszwowy, typ botnicki

Autosomalny dominujący rozlany rogowiec dłoni i stóp, typ Norrbotten

Diffuse palmoplantar keratoderma, Bothnian type

NEPPK

Kod ORPHA

2337

Kod OMIM

600231

Kod ICD10

Q82.8

Kod ICD11

EC20.30

---

*Źródło

orphanet