

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Benign concentric annular macular dystrophy (BCAMD) is a progressive autosomal dominant macular dystrophy characterized by parafoveal hypopigmentation followed by a retinitis pigmentosa-like phenotype (nyctalopia and peripheral vision loss) with a bull's eye configuration.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Kod ORPHA

251287

Kod OMIM

153870

Kod ICD10

H35.5

Kod ICD11

9B75.Y

---

*Źródło

orphanet