

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare benign peripheral nerve sheath tumor characterized by a usually encapsulated space-occupying lesion composed of differentiated neoplastic Schwann cells. It most commonly arises from peripheral nerves in the head and neck region and extensor aspects of the extremities, but also from spinal and cranial nerves, especially the vestibular nerve. The tumor may be asymptomatic or cause symptoms related to a mass effect. It grows slowly and only rarely undergoes malignant transformation.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

Neurilemmoma
Fibroblastoma obwodowa
Neurilemmoma
Neurilemoma
Neurolemmoma
Neurilemoma
Peripheral fibroblastoma

Kod ORPHA

252164

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

D36.1

Kod ICD11

2F3Y

*Źródło

orphanet