

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Vestibular schwannoma is a rare tumor of the posterior fossa originating in the Schwann cells of the vestibular transitional zone of the vestibulocochlear nerve that can be benign, small, slow growing and asymptomatic or large, faster growing and aggressive and potentially fatal, presenting with symptoms of hearing and balance impairment, vertigo, ataxia, headache and fifth, sixth or seventh cranial nerve dysfunction and facial numbness.

Dane

Klasyfikacja	Synonimy
Podtyp kliniczny	Acoustic neurilemoma
	Neurilemmoma nerwu słuchowego
	Nerwiak nerwu słuchowego
	Acoustic neurinoma
	Acoustic neuroma

Kod ORPHA	Kod OMIM	Kod ICD10
252175	-	D33.3

Kod ICD11
2A02.3

---

*Źródło

orphanet