

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A complex form of hereditary spastic paraplegia characterized by delays in motor development followed by a slowly progressive spastic paraplegia (affecting mainly lower extremities) associated with a desquamating facial rash with butterfly distribution (presenting at around two months of age) and dysarthria. There have been no further descriptions in the literature since 1982.

Dane

Klasyfikacja	Synonimy
Zespół wad wrodzonych	Bahemuka-Brown syndrome
	Zespół Bahemuka i Browna

Kod ORPHA	Kod OMIM	Kod ICD10
2819	-	G11.4

Kod ICD11

-

---

*Źródło

orphanet