

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare thoracic malformation characterized by an underdeveloped and abnormally high scapula due to its failure to descend to the regular position during embryonic development. The defect is in most cases unilateral and may be associated with other abnormalities, such as deformities of vertebral bodies, fused or absent ribs, or genitourinary anomalies, among others.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Wada morfologiczna

Synonimy

High scapula

Wysoka łopatką

Kod ORPHA

3181

Kod OMIM

184400

Kod ICD10

Q74.0

Kod ICD11

LB72.1

*Źródło

orphanet