

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Telecanthus-hypertelorism-strabismus-pes cavus syndrome is characterized by telecanthus, hypertelorism, strabismus, pes cavus and other variable anomalies. It has been described in a father and his son. The son also had hypospadias, bilateral inguinal hernia, clinodactyly and camptodactyly of the fingers, and radiographic findings including flared metaphyses of the long bones and osteopenia.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Zespół wad wrodzonych

Kod ORPHA

3293

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

Q87.8

Kod ICD11

-

*Źródło

orphanet