

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Stapes fixation (stapedovestibular ankylosis) is a hearing loss condition that appears as a consequence of annular ligament destruction followed by excessive connective tissue production during the healing process. This condition is mainly observed in otosclerosis, but is also found in chronic otitis media with tympanosclerosis, and other rare bone diseases such as Paget's disease and osteogenesis imperfecta (Lobstein disease).

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Zespół wad wrodzonych

Synonimy
Progressive hearing loss with stapes fixation
Ankyloza strzemiączkowo-przedsionkowa
Zespół Thiesa i Reisa
Stapedo-vestibular ankylosis
Thies-Reis syndrome

Kod ORPHA

3235

Kod OMIM

601449

Kod ICD10

H74.3

Kod ICD11

LD2H.2

---

*Źródło

orphanet