

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare lymphoma characterized by the concurrent occurrence of two or more histologic types of lymphoma involving the same anatomic site. Composite lymphomas can be combinations of two non-Hodgkin lymphomas or of a non-Hodgkin and a Hodgkin lymphoma. In many cases, the tumors are clonally related. Clinical presentation and treatment are determined by the more aggressive component.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

Composite Hodgkin and non-Hodgkin lymphoma

Chłoniak mieszany Hodgkina i non-Hodgkin

Kod ORPHA

168966

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

C81.7

Kod ICD11

-

*Źródło

orphanet