

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Common variable immunodeficiency (CVID) comprises a heterogeneous group of diseases characterized by a significant hypogammaglobulinemia of unknown cause, failure to produce specific antibodies after immunizations and susceptibility to bacterial infections, predominantly caused by encapsulated bacteria.

Dane

| Klasyfikacja | Synonimy |
|--------------|--------------------------------------|
| Choroba | CVID |
| | CVID |
| | Idiopatyczny Niedobór immunoglobulin |
| | Pierwotna hipogammaglobulinemia |
| | Pierwotny Niedobór przeciwciał |
| | Idiopathic immunoglobulin deficiency |
| | Primary antibody deficiency |
| | Primary hypogammaglobulinemia |

| Kod ORPHA | Kod OMIM | Kod ICD10 |
|-----------|----------|-----------|
| 1572 | 616576 | D83.8 |

| Kod ICD11 |
|-----------|
| 4A01.0Y |

*Źródło

orphanet