

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Frontotemporal dementia (FTD) comprises a group of neurodegenerative disorders, characterized by progressive changes in behavior, executive dysfunction and language impairment, as a result of degeneration of the medial prefrontal and frontoinsula cortices. Four clinical subtypes have been identified: semantic dementia, progressive non-fluent aphasia, behavioral variant FTD and right temporal lobar atrophy (see these terms).

Dane

Klasyfikacja	Synonimy
Grupa fenomenów	FTD FTD

Kod ORPHA	Kod OMIM	Kod ICD10
282	607485	G31.0

Kod ICD11
6D83

*Źródło

orphanet