

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Frontotemporal dementia (FTD) comprises a group of neurodegenerative disorders, characterized by progressive changes in behavior, executive dysfunction and language impairment, as a result of degeneration of the medial prefrontal and frontoinsular cortices. Four clinical subtypes have been identified: semantic dementia, progressive non-fluent aphasia, behavioral variant FTD and right temporal lobar atrophy (see these terms).

Dane

| | |
|---------------------|----------|
| Klasyfikacja | Synonimy |
| Grupa fenomenów | FTD |
| | FTD |

| | | |
|------------------|-----------------|------------------|
| Kod ORPHA | Kod OMIM | Kod ICD10 |
| 282 | 607485 | G31.0 |

Kod ICD11
6D83

*Źródło

orphanet