

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Virus-associated trichodysplasia spinulosa is a rare infectious skin disease characterized by the development of follicular papules with keratin spicules in various parts of the body, predominantly in the face (e.g. nose, eyebrows, auricles), that is due to polyomavirus infection in immunocompromized patients.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

Cyclosporine-induced folliculodystrophy

Dysplazja macierzy włosa

TS

VATS

Pilomatrix dysplasia

TS

Trichodysplasia spinulosa

VATS

Kod ORPHA

228379

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

L08.8

Kod ICD11

-

*Źródło

orphanet