

Opis choroby *

Definicja

T-B- severe combined immunodeficiency (SCID; see this term) is a group of rare monogenic primary immunodeficiency disorders characterized by a lack of functional peripheral T and B lymphocytes, resulting in recurrent early-onset severe respiratory viral, bacterial or fungal infections, diarrhea and failure to thrive. Hypersensitivity to ionizing radiation is a characteristic feature of some of its sub-types.

Dane

Klasyfikacja	Synonimy
Grupa fenomenów	T-B- SCID T-B- SCID

Kod ORPHA	Kod OMIM	Kod ICD10
317419	-	D81.1

Kod ICD11
4A01.10

*Źródło

orphanet