Opis choroby *

Definicja

T-B+ severe combined immunodeficiency (SCID; see this term) is a group of rare monogenic primary immunodeficiency disorders characterized by a lack of functional peripheral T lymphocytes with presence of B lymphocytes, resulting in early-onset severe respiratory viral, bacterial or fungal infections, diarrhea and failure to thrive.

Dane

Klasyfikacja Synonimy Grupa fenomenów T-B+ SCID

T-B+ SCID

Kod ORPHA Kod OMIM Kod ICD10

317416 - D81.2

Kod ICD11 4A01.10

*Źródło

orphanet