

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare acquired retinal disorder characterised by sequential focal degeneration of photoreceptors, retinal pigment epithelium and choroid, with the majority of patients experiencing sudden onset photopsia and acute scotomas. Although patients typically retain decent visual acuity, blind spot enlargement and retinal pigment epithelial disturbances tend to develop over time. Individuals also often complain of distortion of central vision, photophobia and difficulty with night vision, with more advanced cases reporting loss of peripheral vision.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

AZOOR

AZOOR

Kod ORPHA

284454

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

H35.0

Kod ICD11

9B65.0

*Źródło

orphanet