Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare, benign, slow-growing odontologic tumor located in the mandible, and on occasion the maxilla, characterized by painless, variable-sized jaw swelling, which if left untreated may lead to a grotesque facial appearance. Occasionally, paresthesias, tooth displacement and adjacent root resorption may be associated. Local invasion is frequently observed, but malignant transformation and metastasis are not common.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Kod ORPHA

Kod OMIM

Kod ICD10

314419

D16.4

Kod ICD11

2E83.1

*Źródło

orphanet