Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare interstitial lung disease characterized by the coexistence of emphysema and usual interstitial pneumonia, typically occurring in male smokers. Emphysema is usually encountered in the upper lobes, preceding fibrosis of the lower lobes. Patients present with severe dyspnea and markedly reduced diffusion capacity on functional testing, while spirometric values are relatively preserved. The syndrome is frequently complicated by pulmonary hypertension and acute lung injury.

Dane

Klasyfikacja Choroba	Synonimy CPFE CPFE
Kod ORPHA 300564	Kod OMIM -	Kod ICD10 J84.1
Kod ICD11 CB03.1
*Źródło
orphanet		