

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare syndrome with intellectual disability, characterized by failure to thrive, short stature, joint laxity, soft skin, and distinctive facial features. Cardiac and neurological involvement is common and there is an increased lifetime risk of certain tumors. Costello syndrome belongs to the RASopathies, a group of conditions resulting from germline derived point mutations affecting the RAS-mitogen activated protein kinase pathway.

Dane

Klasyfikacja	Synonimy
Zespół wad wrodzonych	FCS syndrome
	Zespół FCS
	Zespół twarzowo-skórno-szkieletowy
	Faciocutaneoskeletal syndrome

Kod ORPHA	Kod OMIM	Kod ICD10
3071	218040	Q87.8

Kod ICD11
LD2F.1Y

*Źródło

orphanet