

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare ophthalmic disorder characterized by clinical signs of Graves orbitopathy (i. e. unilateral or bilateral lid retraction, exophthalmos, soft tissue involvement, restrictive myopathy, and/or optic neuropathy) with normal thyroid function and without any signs of hyperthyroidism. Laboratory examination typically reveals low serum levels of thyroid-stimulating hormone receptor autoantibodies.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

Euthyroid Graves ophthalmopathy

Oftalmopatia Gravesa

Kod ORPHA

466682

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

H05.2

Kod ICD11

-

*Źródło

orphanet