

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare, systemic amyloidosis characterized by slowly progressive renal disease presenting with proteinuria, hypertension and decreased glomerular filtration rate leading to progressive renal failure. Histology reveals amyloid deposits of leukocyte chemotactic factor-2 protein in the renal cortical interstitium, tubular basement membranes, glomeruli and the vessel walls. Extra-renal deposits can be seen in the liver, lungs, spleen and adrenal glands.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

Leukocyte chemotactic factor-2 amyloidosis
Amyloidoza czynnika-2 chemotaktycznego
leukocytów

Kod ORPHA

439224

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

E85.8

Kod ICD11

5D00.0

---

*Źródło

orphanet