

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare skin disease characterized initially by erythematous patches with superficial necrosis, at later stages by hyperkeratotic plaques with a rim of dusky erythema, of exclusively acral distribution with a predilection for the lower extremities, and universal association with hepatitis C virus infection. Patients typically experience pruritus or pain. Serum zinc levels may or may not be decreased, although oral zinc supplementation often improves the condition.

Dane

Klasyfikacja	Synonimy
Szczególna sytuacja w chorobie lub zespole	NAE Martwiczy rumień kończynowy NAE Necrolytic acral erythema

Kod ORPHA 439196	Kod OMIM -	Kod ICD10 L53.8
----------------------------	----------------------	---------------------------

Kod ICD11
-

*Źródło

orphanet