

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare fibroepithelial neoplasm usually presenting in adult females with a well circumscribed mobile masses that grow rapidly and sometimes with additional non-specific symptoms such as dilated skin veins, nipple retraction, skin ulcers, palpable axillary lymphadenopathy or blue discoloration of the skin. The neoplasm can be benign or malignant.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

Guz liściasty

Kod ORPHA

180261

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

D48.6

Kod ICD11

2F30.3

---

*Źródło

orphanet