

Opis choroby ***

Definicja

Severe combined immunodeficiency (SCID) due to adenosine deaminase (ADA) deficiency is a form of SCID characterized by profound lymphopenia and very low immunoglobulin levels of all isotypes resulting in severe and recurrent opportunistic infections.

Dane

|                     |   |
|---------------------|---|
| Klasyfikacja | Synonimy  |
| Choroba             | ADA deficiencyNiedobór ADASCID z powodu niedoboru deaminazy adenozynySCID due to adenosine deaminase deficiency |

|                  |                 |                  |
|------------------|-----------------|------------------|
| Kod ORPHA | Kod OMIM | Kod ICD10 |
| 277              | 102700          | D81.3            |

Kod ICD11
4A01.10

---

*Źródło

orphanet