

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare epithelial tumor of the rectum, arising from squamous cells in the rectal epithelium, without the presence of squamous-lined fistulous tracts in the rectum or a proximal extension of SCC of anal or gynecological origin. The reported symptoms are often nonspecific, such as anorexia, weight loss, lower abdominal pain, rectal bleeding and changes of bowel habits.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

Rectal squamous cell carcinoma

Rectal squamous cell carcinoma

Kod ORPHA

424002

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

C20

Kod ICD11

-

*Źródło

orphanet