Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare epithelial tumor of the rectum, arising from squamous cells in the rectal epithelium, without the presence of squamous-lined fistulous tracts in the rectum or a proximal extension of SCC of anal or gynecological origin. The reported symptoms are often nonspecific, such as anorexia, weight loss, lower abdominal pain, rectal bleeding and changes of bowel habits.

Dane

Klasyfikacja Choroba	Synonimy Rectal squamous cell carcinoma Rectal squamous cell carcinoma
Kod ORPHA 424002	Kod OMIM -	Kod ICD10 C20
Kod ICD11
-
*Źródło orphanet		