

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare combined T and B cell immunodeficiency characterized by childhood onset of recurrent bacterial and varicella zoster virus infections. Eczema and recurrent molluscum have also been reported. Laboratory studies reveal profound and persistent lymphopenia, hypogammaglobulinemia, poor immune response to vaccine antigens, and fluctuating neutropenia.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

CID due to Moesin deficiency

MSN-related combined immunodeficiency

X-linked Moesin-associated immunodeficiency

CID due to Moesin deficiency

MSN-related combined immunodeficiency

X-linked Moesin-associated immunodeficiency

Kod ORPHA

504530

Kod OMIM

300988

Kod ICD10

D81.8

Kod ICD11

4A01.1Y

*Źródło

orphanet