

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare vulvar carcinoma characterized by a slowly growing ulcer or nodule which is histologically composed of demarcated nests of palisaded basal cells originating at the epidermal-dermal junction. Occasionally, the tumor may be extensively pigmented. Patients most commonly present with pruritus. The lesion is usually treated by local excision, although groin metastases have been reported.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Podtyp

histopatologiczny

Synonimy

Basal cell carcinoma of vulva

Rak podstawnokomórkowy warg sromowych i łechtaczki

Kod ORPHA

494451

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

C51.8

Kod ICD11

2C70.0

*Źródło

orphanet