

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare inflammatory optic neuropathy characterized by severe and persistent pain followed by subacute visual loss, a relapsing-remitting course, and steroid-dependence. Involvement of both optic nerves is common and is usually sequential. Serum antibodies against aquaporin 4 are absent in most cases. Magnetic resonance imaging shows contrast enhancement of the acutely inflamed optic nerves.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

CRION

Przewlekłe nawracające zapalenie nerwu wzrokowego

Chronic recurrent isolated optic neuritis

Kod ORPHA

499085

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

H46

Kod ICD11

-

*Źródło

orphanet