

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare vascular liver disease characterized by widespread or focal cystic dilatation of sinusoidal blood-filled spaces of the liver without any known cause. Lesions can vary in diameter between few millimeters and several centimeters. The condition may remain asymptomatic or manifest with complications including rupture and intraperitoneal hemorrhage, hepatomegaly, portal hypertension, cholestasis, and liver failure.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

Idiopathic peliosis hepatitis

Idiopathic peliosis hepatitis

Kod ORPHA

480524

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

K76.4

Kod ICD11

-

*Źródło

orphanet