

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare multiple congenital anomalies/dysmorphic syndrome with intellectual disability characterized by mild global developmental delay, intellectual disability or learning difficulties, behavioral problems (like autistic, hyperactive, or aggressive behavior), variable dysmorphic craniofacial features, and abnormalities of the fingers (brachydactyly, tapering fingers, prominent interphalangeal joints). Additional manifestations are highly variable and include recurrent infections and skeletal anomalies, among others.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Zespół wad wrodzonych

Kod ORPHA

476126

Kod OMIM

617061

Kod ICD10

Q87.8

Kod ICD11

-

*Źródło

orphanet