

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare, acquired retinal disorder characterised by transient or permanent visual impairment accompanied by the presence of reddish-brown, wedge-shaped lesions in the macula, the apices of which tend to point towards the fovea. The lesions usually appear in a petalloid or tear-drop configuration. Patients tend to be young, Caucasian, and female.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

AMNR

AMNR

Kod ORPHA

488239

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

H35.3

Kod ICD11

9B65.0

*Źródło

orphanet