

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Bronchopulmonary dysplasia is a chronic respiratory disease that results from complications related to lung injury during the treatment of infant acute respiratory distress syndrome (see these terms) in low-birth-weight premature infants or from abnormal lung development in older infants. Clinical signs are tachypnea, tachycardia and signs of respiratory distress such as intercostal recession, grunting and nasal flaring.

Dane

Klasyfikacja	Synonimy
Zespół wad wrodzonych	BPD
	BPD

Kod ORPHA	Kod OMIM	Kod ICD10
70589	-	P27.1

Kod ICD11
KB29.0

*Źródło

orphanet