

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare, acquired peripheral neuropathy disease characterized by chronic neuropathic pain involving the sensory territory of the pudendal nerve (from clitoris to anus or from penis to anus), aggravated by sitting and for which no organic cause can be found by imaging studies or laboratory tests. It is often associated with pelvic dysfunction.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

Alcock syndrome

Ból sromu

Zespół Alcocka

Zespół uwięźnięcia nerwu sromowego

Pudendal algia

Pudendal nerve entrapment syndrome

Pudendal neuralgia by pudendal nerve entrapment

Pudendalgia

Kod ORPHA

60039

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

G57.8

Kod ICD11

GA34.0Y

*Źródło

orphanet