

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare bone disease characterized by avascular necrosis of the navicular bone in children. Patients present with sudden unexplained foot pain, inability to bear weight, and limping. Radiographic features include flattening, fragmentation, and patchy sclerosis of the navicular bone. Soft tissue swelling may be associated. The condition is most commonly unilateral and self-limiting. Boys are more often affected than girls.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

Aseptic necrosis of the tarsal bone

Choroba Kohlera

Avascular necrosis of the tarsal bone

Kohler disease

Kod ORPHA

563991

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

M92.6

Kod ICD11

-

*Źródło

orphanet