

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Chondrosarcoma is a malignant bone tumor arising from cartilaginous tissue, most frequently occurring at the ends of the femur and tibia, the proximal end of the humerus and the pelvis; and presenting with a palpable mass and progressive pain. Chondrosarcoma is usually slow growing at low histological grades and can be well managed by intralesional curettage or en-block wide resection.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Kod ORPHA

55880

Kod OMIM

215300

Kod ICD10

C49.9

Kod ICD11

2B50

*Źródło

orphanet