

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare type of Ehlers-Danlos syndrome characterized by childhood or adolescence onset of severe, intractable periodontitis, lack of attached gingiva, and presence of pretibial plaques. Additional manifestations are easy bruising, hypermobility mainly of the distal joints, skin hyperextensibility and fragility, abnormal scarring, recurrent infections, hernias, marfanoid facial features, acrogeria, and prominent vasculature.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

EDS VIII

Zespół Ehlersa i Danlosa typ okołożębowy

Ehlers-Danlos syndrome type 8

Ehlers-Danlos syndrome, periodontitis type

Periodontal EDS

pEDS

Kod ORPHA

75392

Kod OMIM

130080

Kod ICD10

Q79.6

Kod ICD11

LD28.1Y

---

*Źródło

orphanet