

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Primary progressive freezing gait is a rare, heterogeneous, progressively incapacitating neurodegenerative disease characterized by freezing of gait (usually during the first 3 years), later associating postural instability, eventually resulting in a wheelchair-bound state. Other features may include mild bradykinesia, rigidity, postural tremor, hyperreflexia, speech disorder and dementia. The disease is unresponsive to dopaminergic treatments.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Zespół kliniczny

Synonimy

PPFG

PPFG

Kod ORPHA

75567

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

G31.8

Kod ICD11

8A0Y

*Źródło

orphanet