

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Primary progressive freezing gait is a rare, heterogeneous, progressively incapacitating neurodegenerative disease characterized by freezing of gait (usually during the first 3 years), later associating postural instability, eventually resulting in a wheelchair-bound state. Other features may include mild bradykinesia, rigidity, postural tremor, hyperreflexia, speech disorder and dementia. The disease is unresponsive to dopaminergic treatments.

Dane

Klasyfikacja	Synonimy
Zespół kliniczny	PPFG PPFG

Kod ORPHA	Kod OMIM	Kod ICD10
75567	-	G31.8

Kod ICD11
8A0Y

*Źródło

orphanet