Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare primary lymphedema characterized by extensive, multisegmental lymphedema, associated with persistent, widespread infections with various genital high- and low-risk human papillomaviruses, resulting in multifocal anogenital dysplasia. Laboratory examination shows abnormalities in lymphocyte subsets, in particular CD4+ T-cells. Epidermal nevi and capillary malformations have also been reported.

Dane

Klasyfikacja Synonimy

Choroba Disseminated warts-impaired cell-mediated immunity-primary lymphedema-anogenital

dysplasia syndrome

Zespół WILD WILD syndrome

 Kod ORPHA
 Kod OMIM
 Kod ICD10

 568056
 Q82.0

Kod ICD11

-

*Źródło

orphanet