

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare benign ovarian stromal tumor characterized by a stromal neoplasm with variable microcystic morphology, low mitotic activity, and diffuse nuclear beta-catenin and cyclin D1 immunoreactivity, while inhibin and calretinin are not expressed. Patients most commonly present with symptoms of a unilateral pelvic mass. Hormonal manifestations are usually absent. The tumor may be associated with familial adenomatous polyposis.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

MCST

MCST

Kod ORPHA

569248

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

D27

Kod ICD11

-

*Źródło

orphanet