

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Familial cold urticaria (FCAS) is the mildest form of cryopyrin-associated periodic syndrome (CAPS; see this term) and is characterized by recurrent episodes of urticaria-like skin rash triggered by exposure to cold associated with low-grade fever, general malaise, eye redness and arthralgia/myalgia.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

FCAS

FCAS

FCAS1

FCU

Rodzinny zespół autozapalenia indukowany
oziębieniem

FCU

Familial cold autoinflammatory syndrome

Kod ORPHA

47045

Kod OMIM

120100

Kod ICD10

L50.2

Kod ICD11

4A60.1

*Źródło

orphanet