

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare hepatic disease characterized by recurrence of hepatitis C virus infection after liver transplantation, leading to liver injury with features resembling those observed in the non-transplant graft, and typically developing after three months post-transplantation. The clinical course is highly variable, although patients most commonly develop progressive chronic liver disease with higher viral loads and more rapid fibrosis progression than in the immunocompetent population.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Szczególna sytuacja w chorobie lub zespole

Kod ORPHA

90052

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

B18.2

Kod ICD11

-

*Źródło

orphanet