

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Waardenburg syndrome (WS) is a disorder characterized by varying degrees of deafness and minor defects in structures arising from neural crest, including pigmentation anomalies of eyes, hair, and skin. WS is classified into four clinical and genetic phenotypes.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Kod ORPHA

3440

Kod OMIM

611584

Kod ICD10

E70.3

Kod ICD11

EC23.2Y

*Źródło

orphanet