

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A form of Bartter syndrome characterized by maternal polyhydramnios, premature delivery, salt loss, polyuria and sensorineural deafness, associated with hypokalemic and hypochloremic metabolic alkalosis, increased levels of plasma renin and aldosterone, and low to normal blood pressure. Urinary calcium excretion rates are variable, and nephrocalcinosis is typically absent.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Podtyp kliniczny

Synonimy

Bartter syndrome type IV
Zespół Barttera typu 4
Zespół Barttera typu IV
Bartter syndrome with sensorineural deafness
Bartter syndrome with sensorineural hearing loss

Kod ORPHA

89938

Kod OMIM

613090

Kod ICD10

E26.8

Kod ICD11

GB90.43

*Źródło

orphanet