

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Locked-in syndrome (LIS) is a neurological condition characterized by the presence of sustained eye opening, quadriplegia or quadriparesis, anarthria, preserved cognitive functioning and a primary mode of communication that uses vertical eye movements or blinking.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

Cerebromedullospinal disconnection

Kod ORPHA

2406

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

G83.8

Kod ICD11

8E45

*Źródło

orphanet