Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare genetic pituitary disease characterized by variable deficiency of all hormones produced in the anterior lobe of the pituitary gland. Clinical manifestations include hypothyroidism, hypogonadism, growth retardation and short stature, and secondary adrenal insufficiency. Age of onset is variable. Signs and symptoms usually develop gradually, and loss of the different hormones is often sequential.

Dane

Klasyfikacja
Choroba

Synonimy
Genetic panhypopituitarism
Genetic panhypopituitarism

Kod ORPHA
90695

Kod OMIM
312000

Kod ICD10
E23.0

Kod ICD11
5A61.0

---

*Źródło

orphanet