

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare reflex epilepsy characterized by in most cases complex partial seizures triggered by different components of eating, such as the sight of food, proprioceptive, olfactory or gustatory sensations, chewing, salivation, and gastric distension after food intake. The seizures may be idiopathic or associated with symptomatic localization-related epilepsies.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

Eating epilepsy

Eating seizures

Kod ORPHA

166418

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

G40.5

Kod ICD11

8A61.40

*Źródło

orphanet