

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A form of congenital adrenal hyperplasia (CAH) characterized by simple virilizing or salt wasting forms that can manifest with abnormal genital development with variable levels of virilization in females and with adrenal insufficiency in both sexes, and that presents with dehydration and hypoglycemia (which can be lethal if left untreated) in the neonatal period, as well as hyperandrogenia.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

Classic 21-OHD CAH

Klasyczny 21-OHD CAH

Kod ORPHA

90794

Kod OMIM

201910

Kod ICD10

E25.0

Kod ICD11

5A71.01

*Źródło

orphanet