

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare primary germ cell tumor of central nervous system characterized by a space-occupying lesion usually arising in structures around the third ventricle, most commonly the region of the pineal gland and the suprasellar compartment. It is composed of uniform cells resembling primitive germ cells. Clinical manifestations depend on the tumor site and include hydrocephalus, visual disturbances, and endocrine abnormalities. Prognosis is favorable in pure germinomas due to high radiosensitivity.

Dane

Klasyfikacja	Synonimy
Podtyp kliniczny	Wewnątrzczaszkowa germinoma

Kod ORPHA	Kod OMIM	Kod ICD10
91352	-	C72.9

Kod ICD11
2A00.1Y

*Źródło

orphanet